State of Virginia

Washington Co.

On this 26th day of November in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and thirty two, personally appears before the County Court of the county aforesaid, being a court of record, Michael Widener a resident of the county and state aforesaid aged seventy four years, who being first duly sworn according to law doth on his oath make the following declaration in order to obtain the benefit of the provision made by the Act of Congress passed June 7th 1832. That in the month of June about the year 1779 he was drafted in the county of Rockingham in the state of Virginia where he then resided that in the same month and year, about the first of the month he marched in a company commanded by Capt. Robert Cravens, to the Monongahela River, he was then transferred to a Captain Abraham Lincoln and marched under his command to a place called Fort Mackintosh [McIntosh] where we joined the main army commanded by Genl. Mackintosh, Col. Benjamin Harris or Harrison commands the Regiment, we remained at that place about one month, when a detachment of which he was one, was sent to a place near the Shawnee Towns, at which place we built a fort which was called fort Lawrence [Laurens], we then returned to fort Mackintosh and he was shortly thereafter discharged that he returned immediately home to his residence in Rockingham County Virginia where he arrived about the first of January 1780, that afterwards in the month of August 1781 he was again drafted and marched from the said county of Rockingham under the command of Capt. William Lincoln to the city of Williamsburg in the state of Virginia & was then transferred to the command of Capt. Cogar and remained in his company during the siege of York and surrender of Cornwallis. He does not remember the name of the Col. commanding the regiment to which he belonged, the name of the Major was Nall (?) After the surrender of Cornwallis he was attached to the party charged with guarding the prisoners who were sent to Winchester in Virginia, after arriving at that post he was discharged and immediately returned home where he arrived about the 25th of December 1781.

He hereby relinquishes any claim whatsoever to a pension or an annuity except the present, and he declares that his name is not on any pension roll of any agency in any state.

Sworn to and subscribed the day and year aforesaid.
